

Living Our Faith in a New Era

Saturday, February 4, 9:30 am – 1 pm

St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, 111 NE 80th Street, Seattle, WA 98115
Conference takes place in the Parish Hall, entrance on First Ave NE

As a follow-up to our discussions after the presidential election, we are gathering to live into our Christian faith together as a church community, standing alongside persons in the wider community who have recently been marginalized or denigrated.

Panel discussion with:

Malcolm McLaurin, Canon for Youth and Young Adult Ministries at St. Mark's Cathedral;
Lupe Macias Rivera, St. Matthew/San Mateo Church, Auburn;
Danni Askini, Gender Justice League; and
Ryan P. Welton, Interfaith and Outreach Committee, Islamic Center of Bothell.
Moderated by St. Andrew's parishioner J.B. Hoover.

Small group discussion of "Renewing our covenant, a statement of commitment and action" from St. Mark's Cathedral Parish:

<http://www.saintmarks.org/serve/volunteer/governance/renewing-our-covenant/>

We will also discuss opportunities for engagement. All are welcome. Please join us for a thought-provoking morning. Coffee and refreshments will be provided.

Free. Donations welcome to cover costs of conference.

Questions? Email Dick Gillett, dgillseattle@yahoo.com

Sponsored by Creation Keepers and OneWorld Ministries.