This Messiah Sing & Play along is a participatory event! Seated directly behind the orchestra, singers are invited to join together in the arias (there are no soloists) as well as the choruses. Instrumentalists are known to leave their orchestra seats to sing their favorite arias with the rest of the vocal section. The evening begins with a few carols to warm up the voices, and concludes with coffee and cookies. Instrumental music is provided. A limited number of vocal scores are available to borrow for the evening.
